What Your Legacy Could Do

Thank you for your interest in the important mission of Santa Fe Community Foundation. Every gift is important to us and shows that you share our vision. If Santa Fe Community Foundation is one of your most important charitable causes, you can make it part of your legacy. When you remember Santa Fe Community Foundation in your will, you leave a lasting legacy to your values as you help continue our work far into the future.

Why Include a Charitable Gift in Your Will?

1. It's simple to do. It can be as easy as including language stating, "I give ten percent of the net value of my estate to Santa Fe Community Foundation."
2. You can change your mind. We won't receive the gift until after your death. During your lifetime, you can amend anything you choose, i.e., beneficiaries, amounts, etc.
3. Tax-wise, it could be beneficial. Gifts to qualified charitable organizations reduce the value of your estate for estate tax purposes.
4. It's an easy way to support Santa Fe Community Foundation, and we'd be grateful for your gift. Bequests of every size build our future financial strength.

How you include a gift in your will or revocable trust depends on what you want to accomplish, and what you want to give to Santa Fe Community Foundation. Here are some options:

1. Give a percentage of your estate — e.g., "I give 25% of the net value of my estate as finally determined for federal estate tax purposes to Santa Fe Community Foundation."
2. Give a percentage of the residue of your estate — the amount left after specific bequests have been given to individuals and organizations; e.g., "I give 25% of the rest, residue, and remainder of my estate to Santa Fe Community Foundation."
3. Give a specific dollar amount or item of property; e.g., "I give Santa Fe Community Foundation $25,000" or "I give Santa Fe Community Foundation 100 shares of IBM stock."

Let Your Legacy Mirror Your Passion

Besides choosing how your bequest will come to us, you also have a say in how it will be used and acknowledged here:

- Make the gift unrestricted — it will be used for the top priority need identified by the leadership of Santa Fe Community Foundation;
- Make the gift restricted, i.e., to support a specific area of interest;
- Set up a named fund, e.g., the Family Fund for Research;
- Memorialize or honor a loved one: “This gift is made in memory of my loving husband, a friend of Santa Fe Community Foundation.”

The correct legal name of Santa Fe Community Foundation is:

Santa Fe Community Foundation (Tax ID #85-0303044), a tax exempt organization located in Santa Fe, New Mexico.
